We introduced this charity class in 2016 to support dementia patients which had proved very popular. Dementia patients often have restless hands and like to have something to keep their hands occupied. The knitted muff with items attached is something they can twiddle with in their hands no matter if they are in hospital or at home. The entries will be donated to AGE NI, Castlewellan, Day Centre and will be distributed to people in the area. This is a very worthwhile project for the show and we hope you will support it. If you have any further queries please contact Fiona Patterson on 07802 698610.
